Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from India s Problem and Its Solution The Indian people finds itself today in a great epoch-making period. The gigantic movement, which is shaking the entire country and is arresting the attention of the world, is not to be looked upon as a simple political phenomenon. It is of much deeper and wider significance than is commonly attributed to it. The determined struggle of a great nation for political freedom - this is not an adequate definition of it. This definition covers but one aspect of the great movement, which fundamentally is a social upheaval of tremendous magnitude and historic importance. A people, which has been forced to remain in a state of social stagnation for a long, long time, is at last waking up in order to start on the road of progress. The government, which ruled in the interests of the foreign exploiting class, must be the objective of the first onslaught; because this foreign domination has been the immediate cause of the backwardness of the Indian people. Colonial exploitation by imperialist capital prevented the normal economic development of the country, and a backward state of economic development is not conducive to the growth of the political consciousness of a people. Thus the British rule in India has been responsible for thwarting the free play of the forces of progress that are inherent in every human community. If the very existence of the British government is threatened today, it is not because the people of India has suddenly made up its mind to free itself from foreign thralldom, but because the inexorable forces of progress inherent in the organism of Indian society, - the...
