HOW DIFFERENT ARE WE?: SPOKEN DISCOURSE IN INTERCULTURAL COMMUNICATION

Channel View Publications Ltd, United Kingdom, 2002. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 204 x 148 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. This book examines the influence of cultural values and communication styles on intercultural communication and demonstrates how training can develop intercultural communication competencies. A large number of interactions between well-educated immigrants from all continents and from more than a hundred countries, together with some including native speakers, are examined and participants answers to questionnaires compared with their actual communicative behaviour. The author raises questions of interest to many groups: linguists, educators, business people and sociologists. Which values are most salient and enduring, and which cause clashes between cultural groups? To what extent do people retain the communication style identified with their first language and how do these different styles impact on others?.
