The Committee met, pursuant to notice, at 10:00 a.m., in Room SD-342, Dirksen Senate Office Building, Hon. Ted Stevens, Chairman of the Committee, presiding. Present: Senators Stevens, Cochran, Thompson, and Akaka. Opening Statement Of Chairman Stevens Chairman Stevens. Good morning. I do welcome the Postmaster General Marvin Runyon, and his staff to this hearing to receive the annual report of the Postmaster General. We have delayed hoping that other members might get out of the meetings that are going on, but I believe we should start on time, General. This annual hearing offers the Postmaster General the opportunity to tell the Senate the state of the Postal Service. Given our congressional responsibility to oversee the function of the Postal Service, this hearing also provides members of the Senate an opportunity to question the Postmaster General about specific issues and problems of...
