Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Dubuque County Early Settler s Association The year 1803 is memorable in the history of the West for the purchase of Louisiana from France for $15,000,000. This land was known as the New Northwest, and was peopled by aboriginal tribes. As its Eastern sections were settled by the whites, its political status underwent sundry changes. In 1834 the territory west of the Mississippi River and north of Missouri was a part of the Territory of Michigan. On the 4th of July, 1836, Wisconsin Territory was erected, embracing within its limits the present states of Iowa, Wisconsin and Minnesota. In 1838 the Territory of Iowa was created, comprising the present state, the larger part of Minnesota, and extending north to the boundary lines of the British possessions. In 1836 the town of Dubuque was surveyed and platted by the Government. December 28, 1846, Iowa was admitted as a sovereign state into the American Union. Ansel Briggs was its first, and Stephen Hempstead its second governor, the latter a resident of Dubuque. General Geo. W. Jones, who...
